

National Afterschool Matters Fellowship (2019-2020) Applicant Reference

Thank you for taking the time to complete this reference for an applicant to the National Afterschool Matters Fellowship (NASM) program. The applicant has applied for the NASM Fellowship beginning in the Fall 2019. The NASM Fellowship is an intensive professional development opportunity in which OST professionals from a range of youth serving organizations and experiences engage in a facilitated inquiry-based experience to enhance their own practice and improve program quality and experiences for children and youth. Fellows will be participating in a facilitated virtual learning group for one year. Final products may include a manuscript for publication, conference presentation, blog, or recorded webinar, etc.
